

LUSH LIFE

Dinner jazz duo, trio and quartet

Lush Life is perfect as background music through meals and for drinks receptions but can also play a more prominent roll if required. This saxophone led group play a sophisticated selection of jazz and swing standards made famous by jazz greats such as Frank Sinatra, Ella Fitzgerald and the Dave Brubeck Quartet. They play many songs from the great song writers of the '30s to '50s such as Jimmy Van Heusen, George and Ira Gershwin, Rodgers and Hart and Cole Porter. Particularly with the larger groups, some well chosen songs outside jazz, played in a jazz style, are also possible (see play list).

The appropriate sized group for your event depends on a number of factors including budget, fullness of sound and the size of your venue. We will happily help you to decide which is the best sized group for your day.

Lush Life Duo also are accomplished classical players. For weddings they can therefore play a well chosen selection of classical music to be played before and during the wedding service itself. Please ask for details.

Lush Life have been together since 2001 playing top quality jazz to a wide variety of audiences throughout the South West. Lush Life have played for select parties of just 20 people up to groups of over 500 people, at venues such as the English Riviera Centre, Powderham Castle and the Imperial and Grand Hotels, Torquay. Lush life also make up the core of the Neil Maya Quartet one of the regions leading modern and contemporary jazz outfits.

Lush Life also form the core of three superb function bands, The Brit Pack, Lush Life with Noelle Rollings and Solar. Lush Life regularly will play through a meal or for drinks and then join with rest of a larger group to provide the evening entertainment, essentially providing a complete package of musical entertainment for your event. Please ask for details.
